The Fourteener Campout will be held near Winfield, CO. We will depart on Friday evening (September 19) and camp in tents in the San Isabel National Forest. On Saturday, we will be climbing Mt. Belford (elev. 14,197 ft). The hike is 8 miles round trip with an elevation gain of approximately 4,500 feet. This campout will involve strenuous activity and be at high elevations. Fall/Winter camping conditions will be likely so make sure that you have appropriate clothes and sleeping gear. Be prepared!

Due to the uncertainty of the weather, we cannot predict what the conditions will be. Precautions to provide a safe and enjoyable experience will be taken, but there can be no guarantee of absolute safety against injury or accident. In recognition of the inherent risks of attending the Fourteener Campout, I (and for or on behalf of my child participant) assume full responsibility for personal injury, accidents and illness, including death, that may occur from my child's (or my) participation.

I acknowledge that I understand the risks associated with participating in the Fourteener Campout (whether outlined herein or not) and do hereby release, forever discharge and agree to hold harmless the Boy Scouts of America, Troop 114 and any of its adult leaders from any and all liability, claims or demands for personal injury, sickness or death, as well as property damage and expenses, of any nature whatsoever which may be incurred by me or my child while participating in the Fourteener Campout.

Fourteener Campout Participant

I have read the above and understand the risks associated with this campout and agree to come fully prepared for spring/winter camping conditions.
