Chartered Organization Representative-Rick Barber

*It was brought to our attention that we need to be very careful to check that all doors are locked, lights turned off and items left as they were found. Doors are not to be propped open.

*The scouts also requested a meeting with Church staff to have approval to use a bulletin board in the meeting room for troop 114 girls.

Open House

*We had five girls potentially interested in joining scouts

*Please bring a friend at any time if you know someone interested in joining scouts.

Western Welcome Week- Lori Lee

*Volunteers will be needed to man the nonprofit BSA Booth on Prince St. (Beginning at 7:30 am)

* Scouts who volunteer to work the booth will earn a recruitment badge.

* Troop 114 will be Banner Carriers for the parade.

Journey to Excellence- Christie Beatson

*Journey to Excellence is a method for planning improvement within our troop.

*As a whole, our troop is meeting or exceeding goals in planning & budget, membership, program goals, volunteer leadership, service projects, and finally, using the patrol method.

* There is a need for a volunteer to oversee/coordinate YPT for adults.

Scoutmaster Report-Shoshanna Nash

*The girls would benefit greatly from the extensive experience and excellent teamwork demonstrated by the troop 114 boys. Perhaps in the future, the girls will set up meetings/activities with the boys troop in order to gain some knowledge and insight from them.

*Though the girls did a great job of planning their events for the next several months, they did not finalize plans for a high adventure camp yet. Speakers will come to explain in more detail each adventure so the girls can make well-informed decisions about what they'd like to do.

*Per rules stated in the Youth Protection Training Guidelines, a buddy, and two YPT adults must accompany each Scout. One adult must be female or a parent of the child.
