The Skiing / Snow Sports Campout will be held at Snow Mountain Ranch near Winter Park, CO. We will be leaving Friday evening, February 19 and driving to Snow Mountain Ranch where we will sleep in cabins. We will return on Sunday morning, February 21. The scouts will be participating in various physically strenuous activities, such as snow shoeing, cross country skiing, snow cave construction, sledding, ice skating and archery. Winter camping conditions will be likely so make sure that you have appropriate clothes and sleeping gear. Be prepared!

Due to the uncertainty of the weather, we cannot predict what the conditions will be. There could very low temperatures, windy, rainy or even snowy conditions. Precautions to provide a safe and enjoyable experience will be taken, but there can be no guarantee of absolute safety against injury or accident. In recognition of the inherent risks of attending the Skiing / Snow Sports Campout, I (and for or on behalf of my child participant) assume full responsibility for personal injury, accidents and illness, including death, that may occur from my child's (or my) participation.

I acknowledge that I understand the risks associated with participating in the Skiing / Snow Sports Campout (whether outlined herein or not) and do hereby release, forever discharge and agree to hold harmless the Boy Scouts of America, Troop 114 and any of its adult leaders from any and all liability, claims or demands for personal injury, sickness or death, as well as property damage and expenses, of any nature whatsoever which may be incurred by me or my child while participating in the Skiing / Snow Sports Campout.

Skiing / Snow Sports Campout Participant

I have read the above and understand the risks associated with this campout and agree to come fully prepared for winter conditions.
